Greetings!

It is my pleasure to provide you with this 2023-2024 Kent County Directory. In these pages, you will find contact information for the elected or appointed officials, departments, and staff who work for you every day to ensure that our county and local governments operate in an efficient, effective, and transparent manner.

This directory is organized according to county, city, township and village offices and also contains contact information for your federal and state elected officials, providing the tools you need to interact with those who represent and serve you.

Kent County’s thriving communities, innovative businesses, collaborative governmental and community organizations, and beautiful natural resources all work in concert to create a county abounding with opportunity for all. Whether you live in, work at, or just visit any of our many communities, you know why so many Michiganders are proud to call Kent County home.

I hope you find this directory to be a helpful tool. If you ever need more information, please call or stop by the county building with your questions or concerns.

Sincerely,

Lisa Posthumus Lyons
